
Client requests: 10-second means since model readiness; includes gateway/network waits.
One observation per host count; two-host result from the preceding sweep. No training updates.